THE VELVET VAMPIRE

We love and play songs by The Velvet Underground

Back in the days when rock bands still sold a hell of a lot of records, 30,000 copies of the debut album „The Velvet Underground“ with its famous banana cover straight out of Andy Warhol's Factory, was not a big deal. What was different was that everyone who bought a copy started their own band...ok, so that's probably more a legend than a fact, but the huge influence The Velvet Underground has had on rock music and pop culture as a whole is undisputed.

The Velvet Vampire now brings back to the stage the attitude, energy, unique drive and, of course, the inspiring aura of classics like "Waiting For My Man", "Heroin", "All Tomorrow's Parties" or "Sweet Jane" as a homage to the "Favorite band of your favorite bands" (Lou Reed, Moe Tucker, John Cale, Sterling Morrison and Doug Yule).

Line-Up

Live on stage (left to right):

Brigitte La Paix - bass

Véronique De La Chanson - guitar, organ

Daniel Selbersuess - vocals, organ, piano, percussion

Kornelius Flowers - guitar, background vocals

Mireille Marteau - drums
